 Let Thy glory be over all the earth.

 Let Thy glory be over all the earth.*

WE WORSHIP IN PRAYER

*The Call to Confession

*The Unison Prayer of Confession

Holy God, in the light of your holiness we see ourselves as we really are, and we are ashamed. We confess that we are people of impure thoughts and unclean lips; we think too highly of ourselves and too little of others. We cling so tightly to the treasures of this world that we cannot open our hands to receive blessings from above. Our feet follow the paths of sin; we wander so far astray that we become strangers to righteousness. Forgive us, and set us again on the path that leads to life. Deal with us not as we deserve, but according to Your mercy; not because we are worthy but because You are gracious. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

*The Assurance of Forgiveness

*Glorifying God            “We Will Glorify”
We will glorify the King of kings, we will glorify the Lamb.
We will glorify the Lord of lords, who is the great I AM.

The Joys, Concerns, and Prayers of God’s People

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

I WAS JUST THINKING . . .

Tuesday is the cutoff date for you to return your worship questionnaires after which we will tabulate the responses and establish a time to share the results with you. In preparation for that time we would do well to consider some biblical principles for worship. The following has been shared with our Session and was excerpted from R.C. Sproul’s commentary on Acts:

“Who shall we then worship? The big question today is the ‘who’ question. Whom do we worship? Who we worship defines how we worship . . . the church-growth movement is always and everywhere asking, ‘What do people want?’ The issue is what does God want? Who is it that we are here for? We are not here to please unbelievers. Surely we are to evangelize them, but corporate worship on Sunday morning is for the body of Christ, for believers to be brought before their living God and approach Him as holy. So the ‘how’ question must always be answered by the ‘who’ question.

“That should be true in every aspect of our lives; how we live our Christian lives should be determined by who we understand God to be and by who Jesus is. We have to deal with the Son of God, and though we are called to enter boldly into His presence, He never stops being holy, and that should be manifested in how we worship Him. I believe that how people worship God speaks louder about their understanding of who He is than any creed or theology ever written.”

Bless Your Hearts,

Pastor Jim

Feed HIS Sheep vs Buy a Peep “Change”-ing Lives Contest:

During Lent we are asking you to please donate your “change” into the jug of your choice by the Mission corner. Money donated into the “sheep” jug will be used by FLM to purchase hot lunches for school children in Haiti; and for every $25.00 donated into the “peep” jug, 5 chickens (3 female/2 male) will be purchased and donated to those who need them the most in the world. Let’s “change” some lives!

The chancel flowers are given by Chris Thompson to the glory of God, and in loving memory of his wife, Catherine, for her birthday (April 9th).
