New Wilmington Mission Conference Wrap Up – Thank you for your support as I, my kids, 2 high schoolers, and 3 young adults from our church attended the New Wilmington Mission Conference. It is always fantastic to be surrounded by people who show such courage to go (or stay!) when hearing God's call. Whether to Atlanta, Kansas, Niger, or the Dominican Republic, the faithfulness of others is inspiring. If you'd like to listen and be encouraged, you can stream many of the presentations from our YouTube channel. The link is found on the NWMC website: <http://nwmcmmission.org/about-us/media-gallery>. ~ Pastor Dena

A Church Family Member is in Need: Dara has come home, and is ready to accept help with meals. Please consider signing up at the website www.takethemameal.com for a new date! (Recipient name - "Marner"/ Password - CCUPC). There will be two people needing meals on each occasion, and they have requested non-spicy meals. Please plan to deliver the meal between 5:00 PM and 6:00 PM, unless you call to make other arrangements. Thanks so much for being willing to help out.

Closet Classic, Flea Market & Cafe Sign-Ups. . . please sign up on the bulletin board in the Greeting Area to work at our sale. The biggest need for volunteers is on Friday, August 11th (if you are not working that day or are retired, please sign up!) The Flea Market will need additional volunteers this year. Please step up and sign up. This is a VERY important ministry in our church and we need everyone to participate.

SUNDAY SIGN-UPS WILL BE HERE SOON! The Stewardship Committee will be hosting the Sunday Sign-Ups on August 20th & 27th. They are excited to let our church family know that you will have the opportunity to sign-up for new Sunday School classes, ministry teams, committees, and focus groups. They are all great ways to grow in your Christian faith and understanding, while meeting new people and serving your church.

SUNDAY MORNING WORSHIP
A WEEKLY CELEBRATION OF THE RESURRECTION

IN PREPARATION FOR WORSHIP

“I call on You, my God, for You will answer me; turn Your ear to me and hear my prayer. Show me the wonders of Your great love, You who save by Your right hand those who take refuge in You from their foes. Keep me as the apple of Your eye; hide me in the shadow of Your wings.” Psalm 17:6-8

The Welcome and Announcements

A Message for the Café

Sherri Kelly

The Prelude

Elizabeth Linton

“Crown Him with Many Crowns”

“Be still before the Lord and wait patiently for Him.” Psalm 37:7

(If you have a prayer request, please fill out a green prayer card and pass it to the center aisle as they will be collected during the first hymn and included during the prayer time)

The Call to Worship

WE WORSHIP IN PRAISE

*A Song of Praise

“You are My All in All”

*You are my strength when I am weak,
 You are the treasure that I seek;
 You are my All in All.
 Seeking You as a precious jewel,
 Lord, to give up, I'd be a fool;
 You are my All in All.*

Chorus

*Jesus, Lamb of God, worthy is Your name.
 Jesus, Lamb of God, worthy is Your name.*

*Taking my sin, my cross, my shame,
 Rising again, I bless Your name.
 You are my All in All.
 When I fall down, You pick me up,
 When I am dry, You fill my cup,
 You are my All in All.*

Repeat Chorus twice

WE WORSHIP IN PRAYER

*The Call to Confession

*The Unison Prayer of Confession

Majestic Lord, You cannot be contained or abridged. In Your loving and merciful presence, we confess our sinfulness, our shortcomings, and our offenses against You. You know how often we have gone astray and You are familiar with the gravity of our imperfections. We have foolishly questioned Your authority. We have haphazardly wasted the gifts of Your abundance. Have compassion on us, Lord, and forgive our iniquities. Help us to worship You and walk in Your ways. Live within us and move among us for the sake of Your Son Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

*The Assurance of Forgiveness

*Glorifying God “We Will Glorify”

*We will glorify the King of kings, we will glorify the Lamb.
We will glorify the Lord of lords, who is the great I AM.*

The Joys, Concerns, and Prayers of God’s People

The Lord’s Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WE WORSHIP IN GIVING

Our Invitation to Give

The Offertory Marcia Miller & Jeannine O’Patchen
“Better Than A Hallelujah”

*Praising God #556 “Praise God From Whom All Blessings”

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
Praise Him all creatures here below.
Praise Him above ye heavenly host.
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

*The Prayer of Dedication

WE WORSHIP IN PROCLAMATION

The Greeting (Please share words of peace, encouragement, and hope)

The Children’s Lesson and Prayer (The children may come forward)

(The children 3 years old - Kindergarten may now leave for TLC out the back doors of the Sanctuary with Miss Gynni)

(There is no KFC for the summer months. Students are encouraged to worship with their families. We have worship materials available to provide guided activities related to worship.)

The Scripture Lesson (page 970)
Matthew 14:13-21

The Sermon Pastor James M. Moran
“DON’T BE STRESSED ABOUT STRESS!”

WE WORSHIP AT THE LORD’S TABLE

*A Hymn “I Love You, Lord”

*I love You, Lord, and I lift my voice
To worship You, O my soul rejoice.
Take joy, my King, in what You hear,
May it be a sweet, sweet sound in Your ear.*

The Apostles’ Creed (in unison)

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into hell; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit; the holy catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving:

Leader: The Lord be with you!

People: AND ALSO WITH YOU!

Leader: Lift up your hearts!

People: WE LIFT THEM UP TO THE LORD!

Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God!

People: IT IS RIGHT TO GIVE GOD THANKS AND PRAISE!

WE INVITE ALL who trust in Christ as Savior and Lord, regardless of denominational affiliation, to share in this celebration and thanksgiving! The Table has been prepared for those who seek fellowship and peace with God and each other.

The Eucharistic Prayer

The Words of Institution

The Sharing of the Bread and Cup

Proclaiming our individual experiences of God’s gracious forgiveness, we eat the bread as it is passed. You will note a dish in the middle of each serving tray that contains gluten free bread. Proclaiming our corporate experiences of God’s grace to the Church, we hold the cup until all have been served, and drink together as the pastor indicates.

GOING IN GOD’S NAME

*A Hymn “Rise Up, O Saints of God”

*Rise up, O saints of God!
Have done with lesser things;
Give heart and soul and mind and strength
To serve the King of kings.*

*Rise up, O saints of God!
The Church for You doth wait,
Her strength unequal to her task;
Rise up, and make her great!*

*The Benediction

The Postlude

“Let Us Break Bread Together”

Please stand as you are able.*

The vases of flowers are given by Ray and Peggy Wetzel to the glory of God, and in celebration of their daughter, Wendy, on her 50th birthday on August 7th.

The basket of flowers is given by Ray and Peggy Wetzel to the glory of God, and in celebration of their daughter, Lisa and Ron’s wedding on August 5th.

I WAS JUST THINKING. . . by Pastor Jim

Jerry Fuller, writing in, Multiplication of Loaves and Fishes, shares this provocative story:

“Many years ago, there was a woman who lived in a small village in France. Trained as a nurse, she devoted her life to caring for the sick and needy. After many years of kind and selfless service to the village’s families, the woman died. She had no family of her own, so the townsfolk planned a beautiful funeral for her, a fitting tribute to the woman to whom so many owed their lives.

“The parish priest, however, pointed out that, because she was a Protestant, she could not be buried in the town’s Catholic cemetery. The villagers protested, but the priest held firm. It was not easy for the priest either, because he too had been cared for by the woman during a serious illness. But the canons of the Church were very clear; she would have to be buried outside the fence of the cemetery.

“The day of the funeral arrived, and the whole village accompanied the woman’s casket to the cemetery, where she was buried--outside the fence. But that night, a group of villagers, armed with shovels, sneaked into the cemetery. They then quietly set to work--moving the fence.

“More astounding than Jesus’ feeding of the crowds with a few pieces of bread and fish is Jesus’ transforming the crowd into a community, a community united in their need for one another, in the bread they share, in the love of Christ who has brought them together. Christ empowers each one of us to perform our own miracles of creating community when we "move the fences" to include outsiders, when we welcome the rejected and forgotten to our tables, when we give of what little we have, joyfully and gratefully, for the sake of others, when we welcome one another as we would welcome Jesus.”
